QUESTIONS PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

1) Was the Petitioners' Due Process Right to Trial by Jury and their Right not to be restrained from their property without probable cause, wrongfully denied when the Appellate Court based its opinion on the belief that the Petitioners were Appealing a Federal Court Case when in fact, it was an appeal from the Pennsylvania Supreme Court ? /1,2

2) Did the District Court err by placing Rules of Court above Petitioners' Constitutional Rights, in violation of long standing antecedent doctrines that Constitutional Rights prevail when there is a conflict ? /3,4,5,6 & 7

" The Caterinas' request for reconsideration did not identify any reasons justifying (bot p 3) relief from the District Court's prior orders. Rather, the Caterinas contend that their petition for writ of certiorari, stemming from a separate District Court proceeding and pending in the United States Supreme Court, somehow relieved them of the time requirements for effecting service. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Appellate Court in reviewing the District Ct's denial erred. Petitioners timely filed Appeals from the Penna. Sup Ct. /1, in both the Dist Ct & the US Sup Ct (A-65),(A-33).

The Appellate Ct wrongfully cited that, ". . their petition for writ of certiorari, stemming from a separate District Court proceeding and pending in the US Sup Ct ". /2 This is not so! Said Writ of Cert stemmed from the Supreme Court of Penna./2 requiring the exhausting of Statutory Remedies, which required Petitioners to exhaust all remedies before proceeding in the US District Court MD Pa (A-96) & (A-100), requiring the suspension of FRCP Rule 4 and Local Rule 4.1./3,4,5 & 6

The Appellate Ct in their opinion (A-17, A-22) failed to consider the Petitioners' inability to comply with the Dist Ct Order 24 June 1977 (A-101, A-102) because of their Pending Case and refused to consider FRAP Rule 2,/3 contrary to US Sup Ct precedents: S. Stern & Co v U.S.,/4; Miranda v Arizona, n73,/6; & Cummings v State of Missouri,/7.

The Appellate Court's error suspended the Petitioners' Rights instead of the Rule & thereby denied their Right to Trial by Jury, not to be restrained from their own property without probable cause,/5.

ARGUMENT

There is no question that Rules must give way in the face of the exercise of a Constitutional Right! Said Rules may not be applied to deny a Constitutional Right! (A-10)

Petitioners are being restrained from their own property w/o probable cause (A-48, 57, A-67,76) or proper service, and Ex Parte, and had to exhaust all Statutory Remedies under 28 USC § 2254(b). /5

Petitioners have right to trial by jury, under the 7th Amendment,(A-66,A-63,64) being denied access to their property by a restraining order.

Petitioners exhausted their statutory remedy from the Penna. Supreme Ct Action. (A-65)/1, (A-94).

Clearly the 3rd Circuit erred in stating: "their petition for writ of certiorari, stemming from a separate District Court proceeding in the US Sup Ct ."(A-20)/2,(A-33)/1, (A-98 /1) when it stemmed from a state Ct. proceeding.

Long established doctrines bar two separate proceedings on the same issues, which supports Petitioners' inability to comply with the Dist Court's Order (A-101,102), see also (A-3,16) (A-84,85) (A-96,97)(A-100).

FRAP Rule 2 (A-8)/3, should have been applied for Petitioners' good cause shown, (A-9,10)/4,6

The Standard of Review was an abuse of discretion by obstructing the doctrine of exhaustion, (A-4,5,)/[8] (A-6,7).

Order 22 July 1997 (A-98) must be reversed/[1] for it supports Petitioners' position that the 3rd Circuit erred. The Dist Ct wrongfully stated the US Sup Ct Writ of Cert provides no basis for failure to comply(A-7,8).

The granting of Cert was not crucial, but exhausting the Statutory Remedy was vital. (A-80,81)/[8].

The Order 27 Aug 1999 (A-82,83) must be reversed, as the Petitioners can not file another case. see/* note order, (A-58,62)

The 3rd Circuit & USDC MD Pa. decisions are in conflict with the Tenth Circuit under the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel & Law of the Case.*(A-23,25)(A-12,14)

Clearly the case is meritorious.(A-28,33)

Contrary to the Attorney General's statement there is a Unified Judicial System & General State Authority (A-77,78,79).

All of the above clearly supports the Petitioners' Brief, (A-27,47 incl).

CONCLUSION

Petitioners seek reversal of both lower Courts for the Rules of Court can not prevail over their Constitutional Rights,(A-11, 15)/[7]. All motions in interconnected Appeals #s 99-3689, 99-3690 be reversed also. **

PETITION FOR A PANEL REHEARING
(By Panel Not Em Banc)

Come now the Petitioners, above named to Petition this Honorable Court for a Rehearing by Panel in the above entitled case under 28 USC § 2072(b), 28 USC § 2071(c)(1) of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and FRAP Rule 2 as referenced FRAP 26(b) of Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Petitioners move this honorable Court to take Judicial Notice in addition to the rules above referenced to the fact that one can not move in two courts on the same case at the same time ! fn.1

fn.1 Judicial Notice that Petitioners inability to comply with Order due to the fact that Petitioners could not move in two Courts on the same case at the same time governed their compliance.

Therefore Petitioners were unable to comply with US District Judge Wm W. Caldwell's Order dated June 24, 1997;(Dkt Entry 2, Apx p 16a,17a) as filed June 24, 1997; & the Petitioners petition this Court to suspend, modify or abrogate FRCP Rule 4, for effective service & US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1, as to timeliness & perfection of service inorder to protect Petitioners' Right to Appeal/fn.2, Right to Jury Trial/fn.3, Right Not to be restrained without Probable Cause/fn.4, by a Court that lacks Jurisdiction because of the Doctrine of Collateral Estoppel & Res Judicata, the Right to Due Process/fn.5, & Not Dual Process of Law depriving Plaintiffs of their perfected rights under said Constitution of the United States so as to protect the Petitioners' Right to Appeal Under 28 USC § 1291 and to enable the protection of the rights and privileges of the Petitioners herein.

The misapplication of the Standard of Review was an abuse of disretion and it should not have been applied by the Dist Court or by the Appellate Court in the manner that it was because of the Courts fn.2 Right to redress grievances- 1st Amend Const. of U.S.

fn.3 7th Amend. Const. of U.S.
fn.4 4th Amend. Const. of U.S.
fn.5 5th Amend. Const. of U.S.

own well established Doctrines of 'Pendente Lite' & 'Lis Pendens' as the Petitioners were in both Courts at once and needed to rely upon the Supreme Court of the United States final Order in order to proceed in the District Court wherein it is Common knowledge that these doctrines are in place so as not to deny Plaintiffs of relief and to support the Constitution of the United States as these long established antecedent doctrines were 'violated' upon review!

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 4 and US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1 should be suspended as they have abridged the Petitioners Substantive Rights under 28 USC § 2072(b) and 28 USC § 2071(c)(1) as follows:

"(b) Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify any substantive right. All laws in conflict with such rules shall be of no further force or effect after such rules have taken effect."(Emphasis added 28 USC § 2072(b),Chp 131 FRCP Rules of Ct.

&"(c)(1) A rule of a district court prescribed under subsection (a) shall remain in effect, unless modified or abrogated by the judicial council of the relevant circuit." (Emphasis added)
28 USC § 2071(c)(1),Chp 131 FRCP Rules of Ct.

Petitioners contend that FRCP Rule 4 and US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1 did in fact abridge their Substantive Rights as were perfected; Right to Jury Trial, Right Not to be Restrained without Probable Cause by a Court that lacks Jurisdiction because of the Doctrine of Collateral Estoppel, the Right to Due Process of Law under the Constitution of the United States and Not Dual Process of Law & the Right to Exhaust their Statutory Remedy, (Supra p.2), for the following reasons:

(1) Compliance with the US Dist Ct Order would have compromised & harmed, prematurely, the Petitioners' Cause of Action before the Exhaustion of their Staturoty Remedy.

(2) Petitioners request this Court to take Judicial Notice the 'Inability to Comply with a Court Order' is a proper defense.

(3) Petitioners had to rely upon & await the final Crder of the Supreme Court of the United States before proceeding in their Pending Case in the District Court so as to have a continum of Due Process of Law & not two separate proceedings on the same issues, the same transactions & occurances & under the 'Doctrine of Exhaustion of Remedies' had to await final adjudication from the Supreme Court of the United States:

"Plaintiff must Exhaust All Required Administrative Remedies before bring claim for Judicial relief."
Robinson v Dalton, 107 F.3d,1018(CA3rd) (PA) 1977

&"The doctrine of 'Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies' applies when claim is cognizable in the First instance by an Administrative Agency alone & Judicial interference is witheld until the administrative process has run its course."

United States vs Radio Corp. of America, 79 S. Ct. 457; 358 U.S. 334; 3 L.Ed. 354 (U.S. PA, 1959)

&"28 USC § 2254(b) and 28 USC § 2254(c), (Exhaustion of all Remedies)"; apply as Petitioners are being restrained without probable cause by a Court that lacks jurisdiction. (Doctrines of Collateral Estoppel & Res Judicata apply).

&"Exhaustion is not complete unless the Trial Court of State intermediate Appellate Court (if Applicable), and the Highest State Court; here the Supreme Court of Pa.; have been presented with substance of Petitioner's claims."
Evans v Court of Common Pleas, 959 F.2d 1227, 1230,(3d Cir.) 1992

The 'Doctrine of Exhaustion' equally applies to Judicial Remedies & Statutory Remedies as well. Petitioners had to Exhaust their Statutory Remedy so as to perfect their substantive rights and privileges before their case could go forth in the Dist Ct as per 'Motion For Clarification' as filed 17 July 1998 USDC, MDPa Scranton Apx p 125a, (Dkt Entry 5) see xxxvii brief; (Notice Exhaustion of Remedy).

Plaintiffs were neither negligent nor disrespectful of the US Dist Ct. Orders, but! were simply doing their best to comply with the Rules as they understood them to apply to their case & Plaintiffs believe that 'Inability to Comply' provides ample reason to waive said Rules.

(4) Petitioners have now Exhausted their Statutory Remedy & can proceed with their case in a continuum single Due Process without a new action as they are being restrained from entry upon their land which has been seized by Defendants without Probable cause by a Court that lacks Jurisdiction under Collateral Estoppel & Res Judicata.

Petitioners further contend that FRCP Rule 60(b) along with FRCP Rule 4 & US Dist

Ct. Local Rule 4.1, should also be suspended for the same hereinabove indicated 'Good Cause' under FRAP Rule 2:

> "In the interest of expediting decision, or for other good cause shown, a court of appeals may, except as otherwise provided in Rule 26(b), suspend the requirements or provisions of any of these rules in a particular case on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction." (Emphasis added)
> FRAP Rule 2 Suspension of Rules title 1

In the document 'Nunc Pro Tunc Reconsideration Order 22 July 1997 & Order 29 July 1998' filed Aug 16, 1999, Apx p 217a, (Dkt Entry 12) see xxxiii brief; the Plaintiffs did most certainly ask the Court to Suspend the Rules, FRCP Rule 4 & US Dist Ct. Local Rule 4.1 for Good Cause & cited the reasons therein, the Court could have acted sua sponte.

Failure of both the District & Appellate Courts to exercise their discretion on the Plaintiffs behalf, effectively denied them their Constitutional Right to a Jury Trial under the 5th, 7th, and 14th Amendments of the Constitution of the United States & denied them the protections not to be restrained without probable cause, under the 4th, 9th and 14th Amendments of said Constitution.

Both Courts abused their discretion by failure to suspend FRCP Rule 4, US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1, & FRCP Rule 60(b) where applicable, on the Plaintiffs behalf!

(5) The Courts & the Defendants are making an end run around the Constitution by dispossessing the Plaintiffs of their land & restraining them without probable cause by failure to waive FRCP Rule 4, US Dist Ct local Rule 4.1, & FRCP Rule 60(b) for the good cause of a Trial by Jury to which the

Plaintiffs are entitled & 4th Amendment Protections. (Supra pgs 3,4 & 5) This following Case gives witness to the Plaintiffs' arguments:

> "(6) Implicit in this appeal is the right of a court to promulgate rules and to interpret them as adjuncts to the dispensation of justice and the orderly and expedient administration of its functions, with limitation that substantial rights of litigants be not unduly circumscribed." (emphasis added)

S. Stern & Co. v the United States; 331, F.2nd 310 (1963)

The Courts have supported the Defendants circumvention of the Constitution by their failure to assert their discretion to waive FRCP Rule 4, US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1, & FRCP Rule 60(b) for good cause that being a Jury Trial for the Plaintiffs before their lands were confiscated & before said Court Order issued, restraining them from their own land, without probable cause & without jurisdiction!

(6) Even the Supreme Court of the United States itself affirms the Plaintiffs position as follows: Cite in dicta:

"Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, their can be no rule making or legislation which abrogate them." (emphasis added)
Ernesto A. Miranda v State of Arizona, 348 US 433; 86 Sup Ct Rpt 1602; n 73 p 160

There is no question that Rules must give way in the face of the exercise of a Constitutional Right! Said Rules may not be applied to deny a Constitutional Right!

28 USC § 2072(b), Chp 131 Rules of Court FRCP; 28 USC § 2071(c)(1), Chp 131 Rules of Court FRCP; FRAP Rule 2; Miranda v Arizona, fn.73; and S. Stern & Co v United States.

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

clearly support the arguments of the Plaintiffs & are witness to the constitutional merit of their claim, prohibiting denial of their constitutional rights.(see fn.1)

The illusion of 'rights' that are never attainable is a scam! If this Court does not address these issues, then! other Courts will ignore the Rights denied at Bar rendering said rights useless and of no effect whatsoever! The Courts have all failed to enforce the Constitutional issues at bar up to now.

What useful purpose is served to have substantive rights, only to have said rights abridged prematurely by the Rules of Court which the Supreme Court of the United States has refused to correct, thus far in prior appeals interconnected with this appeal herein!

A new cause of Action will further circumvent the perfected asserted rights of the Plaintiffs under the Constitution of the United States rendering Due Process as Dual Process as per FRCP Rule 60(b) application if not waived by the Court under the circumstances of this case scenario.

(7) The Court in effect is attempting to Tax or Assess with a monetary penality Costs taxed against the appellants in an additional effort to punish their assertion of their Constitutional Rights & Privileges & Immunities as secured by said constitution & laws of the United States violative of 18 USC Chp 13 Secs §§ 241 and 242, Conspiracy against rights of citizens and Deprivation of rights under color or law, (Civil Rights).

Jury Trial, Right not to be Restrained without Probable Cause, Right to Exhaust their Statutory Remedy & their Right to Due Process of Law & Not Dual Process of Law; can not be taxed or assessed with any type of monetary penality in an effort to obstruct, to injure, oppress, threaten or imtimidate any citizen in the free exercise or enjoyment of said rights & privileges so asserted!

Simply! you can not tax or assess a Constitutional Right as it is unconstitutional to do so, when the right is asserted!

(8) In an almost parallel case in the United States Court of Appeals, for the Tenth Circuit USCA, 10th; before Anderson, Baldock & Brorby, Circuit Judges (see supp Apx p 288a 289a, & 290a; informal brief, Sec V, p 27-28) it is interesting to note that the USCA,10th in effect suspended all the Rules & permitted the Constitutional Right as asserted to pervail on April 7, 1995 wherein the Court enforc

the asserted constitutional rights of the Plaintiff-Appellant & waived & suspended all Rules inorder to permit the Right:

"Then there is a question of the 7th Amendment, and of which would boil over in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as contained in the 1991 Ed., Supreme Court Rule No. 17.1, the Court's Original Jurisdiction, vs. the Courts Appellate. Then the facts of the courts original jurisdiction, exclusive to the people, did speak, and was placed into evidence." W.E. Ensminger v Farm Credit Bank of Wichita, First National Bank of Okeene, Nos. 94-6415, 94-6417, WD Oklahoma

The Plaintiff was untimely & his cause of action was not dismissed because of a FRCP Rule and the 10th Circuit went forth and did not obstruct his asserted Constitutional Right with a FRCP Rule of Court! They suspended the Rule and permitted the Right, as well they should have.

One questions why this important case went unreported like this one?

And so-equally, the USCA, 3rd; is encouraged to Rule in a similar manner less there be a conflict with the decision of another United States Court of Appeals on the same important matters by departing from the accepted & usual course of judicial proceeding:

"(a) a United States court of appeals has entered a decision in conflict with the decision of another United States court of appeals on the same important matter; has decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with a decision by a state court of last resort; or has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or sanctioned such a departure by a lower court, as to call for an exercise of this Court's supervisory power."

Supreme Court Rule 10, Considerations Governing Review on Certiorari, Part III Jurisdiction on Writ of Certiorari; Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States adopted January 11, 1999, effective May 3, 1999.

The Court of Appeals and the District Court are shadowboxing with the Rules of Court so as to deny and obstruct the Constitutional Rights of the Plaintiffs! If the above cited Parallel Case is found 'Res Judicata' in the USCA, 10th Cir., then why is not the Parallel Case herein Not 'Res Judicata'in the USCA, 3rd Cir.?

CONCLUSION

The Petitioners have been denied a Jury Trial under the 5th, 7th, and 14th Amendments of the Constitution of the United States and are being denied the protections of the 4th, 9th, and 14th Amendments,(of said Constitution) and are asking this Court via Judicial Notice herein to suspend and waive the Rules accordingly so as to make way for their asserted Constitutional Rights as their is no question as herein above stated that Rules must give way in the face of the exercise of a Constitutional

Right! Said Rules may not be applied to deny, obstruct, or hinder a Constitutional Right! Note: It is amazing to see the extent to which the Courts will go so as to deny legitimate relief to the Plaintiffs ?

The District Court and the Appellate Court clearly had discretion, (supra pgs 1-9 inclu.), to waive FRCP Rule 4, US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1, FRCP Rule 60(b) all under FRAP Rule 2 for 'good cause'; i.e. Plaintiffs' Right to Jury Trial and Not to be restrained from their lands without probable cause by a Court that lacks jurisdiction under 'Collateral Estoppel'and 'Res Judicata', 'Law of the Case', 'Pendent Lite', 'Lis Pendens', 'Doctrine of Exhaustion of Remedies', along with their 'Inability to Comply defense', 28 USC § 2072(b),28 USC § 2071(c)(1),Stern & Co. v United States, 331 F2d 310;Miranda v Arizona, 348 US 433; 86 Sup Ct Rpt 1602, n73 p 1608; Ensminger v Farm Credit Bk of Whichita 1st Ntl Bk of Okeene; USCA, 10th Cir Nos. 94-6415, 94-6417, WD Oklahoma; as combined with the 5th, 7th, & 14th Amendments in conjunction with the 4th, 9th, & 14th Amendments of the Constitution of the United States before their lands were seized and before being restrained without probable cause by a court that did not have jurisdiction as said Plaintiffs were denied Due Process of Law and their Rig to Exhaust their Statutory Remedy Prematurel because of the Rules of Court: FRCP Rule 4, US Dist Ct. Rule 4.1, FRCP Rule 60(b) that offers only a 'Dual Process of Law' instead of waiving the Rule and granting relief; as the Rules can not obstruct the asserted Constitutional Rights of the Plaintiffs herein!

For the reasons set forth, (supra pgs 1-10), above and all documents filed in this Appeal; we request this Court to reverse itself and Waive the Rules,(suspend the rules) and Permit the Right granting relief to the Petitioners providing they have 'Jurisdictio under the Law of the case or dismiss for Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction as the Matter is 'Res Judicata' !

OPINION

PER CURIAM

Pro se appellants Joseph Caterina, Frances Caterina, Emmett Caterina and Clara

Caterina appeal the District Court's refusal to reconsider its orders dismissing the Caterinas' action without prejudice for failing to effect timely service of process and denying their motion for clarification. For the reasons explained below, we will affirm.

In 1997, the Caterinas filed pro se complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, claiming that several entities connected with the judicial system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania violated their constitutional rights to due process and to equal protection under the law. The Caterinas failed to serve the defendants within 120 days, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m). The District Court entered an order directing them to effect service and warning them that failure to do so would result in the dismissal of the action. When the Caterinas again failed to serve the defendants properly, the Dist Ct dismissed the action without prejudice for failure to comply with its prior order.

In July 1998, the Caterinas filed a motion for clarification. Because the Court's July 22, 1997 order dismissing the action was self-explanatory & because the Caterinas did not indicate that they sought any additional relief, the District Court denied the motion for clarification. Several months later, the Caterinas filed a document captioned "Nunc Pro Tunc Reconsideration Order 22 July 1997 and Order 29 July 1998," evidently seeking reconsideration of the orders dismissing the case and denying clarification. In an order entered August 30, 1999, the District Court denied the request for reconsideration and reminded the Caterinas that their case was dismissed without prejudice; thus, if they wish to pursue their claim, they could file another action and comply with the service requirements. This appeal followed. The matter has been fully briefed and is now ripe for consideration.[1]

We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291. Although the Caterinas' motion for " Nunc Pro Tunc Reconsideration" itself did not identify the legal authority for its presentation, because it was filed beyond ten days of entry of judgment, we view it as having been filed pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b). Lorenzo v Griffith, 12 F.3d 23, 26(3d Cir. 1993). The Standard of review of a District Court's denial of relief under Rule 60(b) is abuse of discretion. See Browder v. Directro, Illinois Dep't

[1]All of the appellees have either notified the Court that they are not participating in the appeal or failed to file a brief; thus, the appeal is proceeding on appellants' brief onlt. See Clerk's Order dated August 9, 2000 of Corrections, 434 U.S. 257, 263 n.7(1978); Lorenzo, 12 F.3d at 26.

The District Court notified the Caterinas of their failure to serve defendants and gave them an extra 30 days in which to effect service. The Caterinas neither served the defendants nor explained their failure to do so. Accordingly, the District Court properly dismissed the action for failure to comply with its prior order. Moreover, the District Court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion for clarification. As the District Court correctly concluded, the order dismissing the action was self-explanatory and, absent any futher request for relief, clarification was unnecessary.

The Caterinas' request for reconsideration did not identify any reasons justifying relief from the District Court's prior orders. Rather, the Caterinas contended that their petition for writ of certiorari, stemming from a separate District Court proceeding and pending in the United States Supreme Court, somehow relieved them of the time requirements for effecting service. This argument is unpersuasive. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 makes no such allowances and the Caterinas were adequately informed of their service obligations and the consequences in the event of noncompliance. Thus, the District Court was well within its discretion to deny the Rule 60(b) motion.

Accordingly, we will affirm the District Court's denial of the Caterinas' request for reconsideration, entered August 30, 1999.

ORDER AND JUDGMENT *

FILED USCA 10th Apr 07 1995 Patrick Fisher Clerk ? By s/s April A Cart

Before ANDERSON, BALDOCK, and BRORBY, Circuit Judges

After examining the briefs & appellate record, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a); 10th Cir. R. 34.1.9. The cause is therefore ordered submitted without oral argument.

Warren E. Ensminger appeals the dismissal of his actions, characterizing the actions as follows:

* This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. The court generally disfavors the citation of orders and judgments; nevertheless, an order and judgment may be cited under the terms and conditions of the court's General Order filed November 29, 1993. 151 F.R.D. 470

FILED Apr 10 1995 Robert D Cenios Clerk US Dist Court Western Dist of Okla By s/s Deputy DOCKETED

This action was instigated to determine who has the highest title to property located in (Major and Grady) county, Oklahoma Territory state, of which the United States of America by contract, gave up all right, title or interest in said property, without any conditions set forth; and it is very clear by the defendant's pleadings that it is not entity that is claiming the property, Mr. Butler for Federal Land Bank clearly stated that the claim is the United States, and that Federal Land Bank and First National Bank in Okeene are not of the United States of America. Mr. Elliott's pleading for First National Bank in Okeene, plead the resident scam, and didn't object to the Federal Land Bank claim. Then there is a question of the 7th Amendment, and of which would boil over in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as contained in the 199[illegible] Ed., Supreme Court Rule No. 17.1, the Court's Original Jurisdiction, vs. The Courts Appellate. Then the facts of the courts original jurisdiction, exclusive to the people, did speak, and was placed into evidence.

Appellant's Opening Briefs at 1.

Upon review of the records and arguments of the parties, the judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED. The mandates shall issue forthwith.

PART I

INFORMAL BRIEF
BY APPELLANTS

Comes now Appellants above named and Petition this Honorable Court to consider this Informal Brief by Appellants: viz Joseph R. Caterina, Frances H. Caterina, Emmett Caterina and Clara Caterina from the ORDER RECONSIDERATION of the U.S. District Court, M.D., PA., Honorable William Caldwell, entered on August 27, 1999; (Dkt Entry 18; Apx 223a, 224a) nunc pro tunc motion for reconsideration (Dkt Entry 12; Apx 217a, 218a) is denied.

V BACKGROUND OF CASE

They extended a legitimate flood project on the Wildcat Creek to now include the minuscule tributary Tinklepaugh channel that runs for about five blocks crossing Main, Keystone, Cemetery Streets and terminates just a few hundred feet after crossing Union Street at which point there is no evidence of any channel. It drains about 120 acres of run off, but earlier on, before strip mining about 180 acres. The channel has had little or no history of flooding in over 75 years & has been in place since the turn of the last century.

In order to accomindate two or more developers above this channel the powers to be have decided to dump the upstream Eynon Creek, about 1450 acres of run off, into the minuscule Tinklepaugh Channel so that the developers would not be required to impound all runoff within each development at a great savings to them and their Country Club investors.

The ploy of dumping a much larger watershed into a small channel in the name of flood protection wherein neither has any history of flooding is the crux of dispute.

Armed with insider information the powers to be had straw agents purchase vast tracts of land above the Tinklepaugh before huge sums of public moneys were utilized to improve the scars of strip mining. With prior knowledge & privileged information about newly extended sewer line and flood projects that would greatly enhance this worthless land so as to enrich themselves at taxpayers expense. All of this hinges upon exit of this additional storm (water) runoff into the Tinklepaugh (lower) Channel.

The monetary rewards so great, that officals went beyond the norm & begun to construct without the prerequisite of title to all necessary lands needed within the bogas flood control project limits.

The Eynon Creek now empties into an openinto the mines & inorder to close the opening the option to dump the Eynon Creek into the (lower) Tinklepaugh Channel became to attractive as to execute the idea. However! these newly formed (additional) runoff diversions could have been dumped directly into the Lackawanna River, above the (lower) Tinklepaugh, without risk of flooding to the Tinklepaugh residents.

The author of these pleadings, one of the Appellants, a Registered Professional Civil Engineer, who formerly was employed by the United States Army Corps of Engineers in Design Branch for three years working on the largest flood control projects in Pennsylvania; is well aware that at some point in time, a storm greater than 100 yrs. will flood the residents of the (lower) Tinklepaugh causing real damage and loss of property!

In an effort to prevent this from ever happening a case was invoked in the US Dist Ct., M.D. PA 8 Apr 93 demanding a trial by Jury (See US Sup No 94-1231) Any flooding without the project would be nill and minuscule; but now with an additional 1450 acres of runoff could now be life threating to the older residents. The case was dismissed without ever having been presented and no relief was given.

The Appellants then resorted to the statutory declared Right to Remedy under Common Law, (1 Pa. CSA § 1503, 1504; P.L.E. Common Law § 1,2,3,4, & 5; 46 Pa. PSA § 151, & 152; Constitution of PA. Art 1 § 6 Trial by Jury; Constitution of PA. 15 July 1776, Ch 1, XI Trial by Jury) also (1 Sm. L. 429

§§ Sec 1 to 3, Sec 8 (28 Jan 1777) Common Law;42 PS § Rule 1058 & Rule 1061 Civil Procedure Trial w/o Jury. All was combined with the Seventh Amendment & Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution (of the United States) along with the Fourth Amendment &

Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

In despriation while litigation was pending, they actually tried dumping the Eynon Creek into the (lower) Tinklepaugh Channel & created real Flooding on the (lower)Tinklepaugh violative of 18 CPSA § Sec 3302, 3303 and Sec 902. The Department of Mines (US Dept of Interior) quickly put a stop to that!

As this (case) story goes; the Appellants perfected an Action to Quiet Title & the Appllees quickly ran to Equity (No 60046-1996 Lacka Co.) claiming they had no remedy in Law & immediately restrained the Appellant Joseph R. Caterina & John & Jane Doe.(See USCA, 3rd Cirt. No 99-3689 & 99-3690) now pending before this Court. What the Appellees really have is NO title, the prerequisite to construct? Without title, & because they have defaulted in silence to all litigation, they have NO case.

Now comes the clincher; they already validated the (Appellants') Common Law Action to Quiet Title by running to Equity claiming no Remedy in Law; but however did not realize the 'Res Judicata' aspect of the Common Law Jury; that being this Court's decision to determine: did the Appellants have their right to Trial by Jury or not!

The Appellees were counting on the US Sup Ct. Case No 97-102; (Dkt Entry 3; Apx 28a t 123a) entered July 17, 1997 and (Dkt Entry Apx 134a to 196a) entered July 17, 1998; w- ould be denied, thus ending their dilemma; but, However! that backfired on them as s- aid denial represented the Appellants exhaustion of their statutory remedy that now validates the assertion of their Statutory Declared Right to Remedy under Common Law & their Common Law Action to Quiet Title is now absolute!

Additionally! the Appellants have also perfected their Right to Trial By Jury in the Federal Courts should not the case already be deemed 'Res Judicata' by this cour invoking the doctrine of 'Collateral Estopp el' which should end all of this under the Seventh Amendment of the Constitution of the United States wherein the Court of E- quity must vacate all Restraining Orders forthwith as they lack Jurisdiction!

The 'inherent danger' that the government has created was heretofore nonexistant! cit

The Citizens of the Tinklepaugh are now in a position of greater risk and (real) danger of flooding than ever before (100 years or more).

The District Court failed to understand that the Appellants were making every effort to perfect their Right to Trial by Jury under the Seventh Amendment and that the Pendency of the Writ of Certiorari and the Petition Rehearing (US Sup Ct No 97-102 / Atty Thomas Marsilio) had very great bearing as its, exhaustion was crucial to the perfection of their asserted Rights to Common Law Remedy as the Right to Appeal needed to be exhaused inorder to validate their right to Trial by Jury under the VII Amendment & thus FRCP Rule 4 (and US Dist Ct MDPa Local Rule 4.1) has obstructed said Right to Trial by Jury as now perfected!

I Pennsylvania Supreme Court denied a Petition for Reconsideration for Allowance of Appeal in January 1997 and the Appellants timely invoked jurisdiction in both the US Dist Ct MD Pa see (Dkt Entry 1; Apx 3a) entered 18 Feb. 97 and the Supreme Court of the United States; see (Dkt Entry 3; Apx 28a abd 48a) entered 17 July 1997, see (Dkt Entry 6, Apx 134a and 148a) entered 17 July 1998; as filed in said Court 15 April 1997.

The District Court dismissed the action on July 22, 1997; (Dkt Entry 4; Apx 124a) entered 22 July 97 pursuant to Order 8 July 97; (Dkt Entry 3, Apx 18a) entered 9 July 97 citing F.R.C.P. Rule 4 (& US Dist Ct MD Pa Local Rule 4.1), (Service within 120 days).

The Supreme Court of the United States first responded to Appellants on 31 July 97 (Dkt Entry 6; Apx 146a) entered 17 July 98 and last responded January 12, 1998 petition rehearing denied; (Dkt Entry 5; Apx 127a) entered 17 July 98.

The Appellants asserted their Statutory Declared Rights to Remedy under Common Law according to the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,(see para 5, p 19 & para 1, p 20 herein); combined with their Right to Trial by Jury under the Seventh Amendment of the Constitution of the United States as combined with the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States with regard to perfecting an Action to Quiet Title so as to secure their rights under the Fourth Amendment combined with the Fourteenth Amendment of said Constitution

The District Court failed to understand that the Appellants were making every effort to perfect their Right to Trial by Jury under the Seventh Amendment & that the Pendency of the Certiorari Petition and Petition Rehearing had very great bearing as its' exhaustion was crucial to the perfection of their asserted Rights to Common Law Remedy; viz. 'Right to Trial By Jury', as the Statutory Remedy; the right to appeal needed to be exhausted; inorder to validate their Right to Trial by Jury under the VII Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

The granting of Certiorari was not crucial, but the exhausting of the Statutory Remedy under the Law; in this case the right to appeal because of the absence of any remedy thereof; was crucial to perfecting the validation of their Right to Trial By Jury under the Seventh Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. And that was accomplished on 12 January 1998; (see Dkt Entry 5; Apx 127a) entered 17 July 98.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure FRCP Rule No 4, and (US Dist Ct Local Rule No 4.1; see Order 27 Aug 99 (Dkt Entry 18, Apx 223a, 224a) entered same date of Order; ORDER being herein appealed; obstructed their rights secured under the Constitution of the United States by abrogating them prematurely!

The Judge was asked to suspend the Rule and Permit the perfected Remedy, but the Judge & his Law Clerks refused & as a results this appeal must be decided & Appeals No 99-3689 and No. 99-3690 may be directly affected. Did the Judge error by suspending the Right instead of the Rule of Court or in the alternative should not the Rule have been abrograted inorder to permit the Right in accordance with Miranda v Arizona?

cite: "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, their can be no rule making or legislation which abrogate them." (emphasis added) Ernesto A. Miranda v. State of Arizona, (348 US 433; 86 Sup Ct Rpt 1602; n 73 p 1608).

The Order of the Judge to dismiss obstructed our Right to Trial by Jury & our Statutory Right to Remedy under the Law.(Notice of Appeal; Dkt Entry 23; 228a & 229a) entered 13 Sept 99.

The Appellants filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on 15 April 1997; (Dkt Entry 3, 48a) and said Court failed to acknowledge receipt of filing until July 31, 1997; (Dkt Entry 5, Apx 127a); entered 17 July 98; however the Judge dismissed the case on July 22, 1997 ORDER dismissed without prejudice now requiring another completely new case; (Dkt Entry 4, Apx 124a) entered 22 July 97; 9 days before Clerk Loretta S. Ruffin responded to US Sup Ct Case no. 97-102. Letter July 31, 1997; (Dkt Entry 6; Apx 146a) entered July 17, 1998.

In the Complaint (Dkt Entry 1; Apx 7a) filed 18 Feb 97 in para 19) lines 7 & 8; the Appellants complained of denial of their right to 'Trial by Jury' as opposed to 'Trial with Jury' and following: 'Rights to Common Law'; rights to 'Quiet Title Action'; and rights to their property along with being Restrained to enter thereupon! In addition denial to rights to 'Due Process of Law' and the 'Equal Protection of the Law'! All of this being true.

Additionally! the ORDER of the Judge to dismiss; (Dkt Entry 4; Apx 124a) Entered 22 July 97; obstructed the Appellants Right to Trial by Jury and their Statutory Rights to Remedy under the Law as he (the Judge) suspended their Rights instead of the Rule and errored grossly under the circumstances!!

It is requested of this Court to Reverse the Judges 22 July 1997 Order; (Dkt Entry 4; Apx 124a) entered same date pursuant to ORDER 8 July 97; (Dkt Entry 3, Apx 18a) entered 9 July 97; thus suspending FRCP Rule 4 and

US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1; so-as not to abrogate the Constitutional Rights of the Appellants; thus enforcing their 'Right to Trial by Jury' under the Seventh Amendment((FRCP Rule 38(a)) and their 'Rights to Remedy under the Law'.

II 1. The Plaintiffs Exhausted their Statutory Remedy on 12 January 1998; (Dkt Entry 5; Apx 127a) entered 17 July 98; (Dkt Entry 6; Apx 183a, 184a). cite:

(Notice of Appeal; Dkt Entry 23; Apx 228a 229a) entered 13 Sept 99.

2. MAXIM OF LAW: Silence is consent!

All parties were silent and all Courts were silent! See Attorney Marsilio's Writ of Certiorari: (Dkt Entry 3; Apx 28a) entered 17 July 97; and Plaintiffs/Appellants Writ of Certiorari: (Dkt Entry 3: Apx 48a) also entered 17 July 97; and Also! 3. Argument! Case is perfected, all Parties defaulted! See: EX-J; (Dkt Entry 26; Ex J-1, J-2, J-3; Sup Apx 331a, 332a, 333a); Ch XCII, Last part last sentence: "The Plaintiff shall have Judgment Against the Defendant by Default." Case is over!

4. Appellants perfected Right to Trial by Jury!

By exhausting their Statutory Remedy, in this case the right to Appeal; the Right to Trial by Jury under the Federal Court Jurisdiction was perfected by the United States Supreme Court's 12 January 1998 ORDER; (Dkt Entry 5; Apx 127a); entered 17 July 98; and because or FRCP Rule 4 and US Dist Ct Local Rule 4.1; Appellants have yet to have received said Jury Trial in Federal Court under Federal Procedure Rules!

UNINDICTED CO-CONSPIRATOR PAUL R. MAZZONI, E
REFUSES TO LIFT THE RESTRAINING ORDERS

On Thursady, Dec. 19, 1996; Plaintiffs herein Emmett Caterina & Joseph R. Caterina went to the Law Offices of Atty Paul R. Mazzoin of the Law Firm of Mazzoni & Karam; to see if the Restraining ORDER could be lifited before Christmas!

Atty Mazzoni is the Senior Law Partner & his brother Atty Robert A. Mazzoni represents the Lackawanna County Sewer Authority concerning the project herein disputed. At this point in time a Petition for Reconsideration, PA Sup Ct, M.D. No 0181 Appeal Dkt 1996 was pending.

After a brief discussion it was clear that the Restraining ORDER on Joseph R. Caterina would not be lifted as Atty Mazzoni was right up on the situation and claimed that the Equity Court had Jurisdiction and that the County had an Equitable 'Interest' and had no remedy in law!

Atty Mazzoni admitted after reviewing our defense that we were the owners of the Lands in Dispute, but! how were we going to enforce our position?

We pointed out that the government lost the case and that the case was Res Judicata and the Equity Court did not have Jurisdict ion. He laughed and stated that he'd let Judge Cottone know my position.

I let him know that if the Equity Court lacked jurisdiction that somebody might be sued including the Judge who restrained me!

AA-1, 382a

The restraining ORDER can't even be removed by an Action of Ejectment, so he claimed! (Atty Paul Mazzoni)

Atty Mazzoni was a District Attorney for a number of years in the past and cleraly understood that the purpose of the Restraining ORDER had extinguished as construction was completed and said ORDER extinguished therewith automatically!

I said that your so-called 'Equitable Interest'is impossible as it is after the 'fact' and that y[illegible] guys are mere 'tress-passers' and ought not be on our property what-so-ever!

We asked him one more time to remove the Restraining ORDER before Christmas! He failed to respond.

I asked who was going to assume responsibility for my being restrained without probable cause and by a Court that lacks jurisdiction! He just smiled.

My Dad, Emmett Caterina, had retained Atty Mazzoni in the past as I had also done.

I reminded my Dad how generously he over paid Atty Mazzoni in the past and how ill concer ned he was over this situation!

For fear of arrest I continued to stay away from my parents home and did not attend the Christmas gathering as I did not wish to be in contempt of Court!

PROBABLE CAUSE FOR PURPOSES OF CONSTRUCTION (Dkt Entry, 26; Ex A-30,A-31,A-32,A-33; Sup Apx 269a to 272a) Final Order may 22,1996

19) As is apparent after reading the Final Order of 22 May 96 herein above referenced, the real purpose of the restraining Order was to construct. Construction was completed about the end of August early Sept 1996 as per announcment in the newspaper.

The Restraining Order should have extinguished as the purpose of the circumstances had extinguished, that being to Construct! on 24 December 1997 via telephone call to Elizabeth A.O'Reilly at about 11 A.M.; she admitted that said Restraining Order was only for purposes of Construction and should have been lifted over one year ago and apologised for the oversight with regard to my filing 'Listing Moot'; (Dkt Entry 26; Ex A-1 to A-6; Sup Apx 240a to 245a); but! however within less than 1 hour after stating that the Restraining Orders would be lifted, she reversed herself because of higher authority & only permitted Joseph R. Mazzoni, Esq in his law office to see if the Restraining Order could be lifted before Christmas; see Memorandum For the Recored by Joseph R. Caterina 6/7/00; (Dkt Entry 28; Ex AA-1, AA-2; Sup Apx 382a, 383a) cite: A-48, A-49, A-50 wherein he refused to lift the Restraining Order even though he, being a former District Attorney for Appellee Lackawanna County, clearly understood that the purpose of the Order had extinguished as the Construction was completed. He also failed to reply when asked who would assume responsibility for the Appellants being restrained without 'probable cause' by a court that Lacks Jurisdiction? At this point in time a Petition for Reconsideration (Pa Sup Ct., M.D. No. 0181, Appeal Dkt 1996; was pending. Apparently, without disclosing it, this Pending Reconsideration in the Supreme Ct. of Pennsylvania, must have been the probable cause. however! on January 15, 1997; Deputy Prothonotary Joan Steulak of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania attested an Order of that Court denying a Petition for Allowance of Appeal. (Dkt Entry 3; Apx 42a). Once again Probable Cause was extinguished on 15 Jan 97 and they (Lackawanna County) refused to lift the Restraining Order. If the Court of Equity had Jurisdiction what difference would that appeal make?

WITHOUT PROBABLE CAUSE THE RESTRAINING ORDERS MUST FALL: ORDER SUGGESTED (Dkt Entry 26; Ex A-9; Sup Apx 248a)

22) Because there is no Probable Cause and all possible reasons have extinguished; so then must the Restraining Orders Extinguish forthwith on this Appeal:

a) Probable Cause Malicious Prosecution Extinguished on 10/4/96 !

b) Probable Cause For Purposes of Construction Extinguished on 9/1/96 !

c) Probable Cause Case Pending Before the U.S. Sup Ct. Extinguished on 12 Jan 1998 !

d) Probable Cause apparently Petition Reconsideration Pa. Sup Ct., M.D. No. 0181 Dkt 1996 Extinguished on Jan 15, 1997 !

Because without probable cause there is no valid legal or judicial reason to restrain the Appellant Joseph R. Caterina, John Doe or Jane Doe other than to obstruct Justice & the Constitutional Rights of the

Appellants who have asserted their IV + XIV and VII + XIV Amendment Rights to the Constitution of the United States. However! the Court should consider the very strong possibility that the Appellants are being restrained soley for defending their lands through Rights enjoyed under rights and privileges secured by them under the Constitution and laws of the United States, or becauseof the Appellants herein having so exercised the same through 'due process' of law. cite: Title 18 USCA, Ch 13, Civil Rights § Sec 241 Conspiracy against rights of citizens and Sec 242 Deprivation of Rights under color of Law;(Dkt Entry 26; Ex CC-1 to CC-3; Sup Apx 387a, 388a, 389a); also cite: Notice

REASONS FOR SILENCE BY APPELLEES ET AL.

23) The Appellees and Related Parties have been restraining the 'Personums'of the Appellants without Probable Cause and without Jurisdiction and are circumventing the Constitution of the United States without 'due process' and are denying said rights and privileges secured by them under the IV, V, VII, IX,X & XIV Amendments of the Constitution of the United States simpl because they asserted their 'Right to Trial by Jury' as was denied them and the 'Right to Remedy Under Common Law' that is being denied them as the Appellees lack any type of title to the lands in dispute and seized them in mere possession in an effort to sustain an illegal suit in Equity because the lands were inequitably acquired and wish to restrain the Title Owners long enough to perfect title in the future by prescription at the costs of the rights and privileges of the Appellants and that is repugnant to the Constitution of the United States: cite: (Dkt Entry 28; Ex HH-3 and JJ-2, JJ-3; Sup Apx 408a; 420a, 421a).

FINDING OF FACT

Affidavit of Declaration Action to Quiet Title in Common Law for Joseph R. Caterina, Frances H. Caterina, Emmett A. Caterina & Clara A. Caterina was presented for publication and published for three consecutive weeks(see Exhibit M). No legal obejctions were recorded, and all parties who were known to possibly have an interest in this case were notified by registered mail (see Exhibit O). No one/party has responded.

That a Notice of praecipe for entry of Default Judgment was served upon all parties on the fifth day of the twelfth month,1995. Certified return receipt requested prepaid mail through the United States Postal Service, of which all receipts were returned, whereas none of the parties have responded to the court within the required ten (10) day period to date. Therefore, all parties have defaulted knowing that they were in default and that a Judgment would be entered against them without a hearing and that they would lose important rights and property. (see Exhibit P)

FINAL ORDER AND JUDGEMENT

This action was instigated to determine who has venue and jurisdiction over Joseph R. Caterina, Frances H. Caterina, Emmett A. Caterina, and Clara A. Caterina (see Exhibit "I"). Based on the doctrines of law, of this case, this court finds that Joseph R. Caterina, Frances H. Caterina, Emmett A. Caterina and Clara A. Caterina are NOT Federal Emergency citizens of the corporate U.S., nor a "subject" thereof. Therefore, Joseph R. Caterina, Frances H. Caterina, Emmett A. Caterina and Clara A. Caterina have chosen to proceed in their own right in Common Law.

Defendants in this action have moved to strike plaintiff's demand for a jury trial of her claim of pregnancy discrimination in violation of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (PHRA), 43 P.S. § 951 et seq., in light of the recent decision of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Wertz v. Chapman Twp.,741 A.2d 1272(Pa. 1999). In Wertz, the Court held that neither the PHRA nor the Pennsylvania constitution provides a right to jury trial for claims arising under that statute.(It is undisputed that plaintiff has a right to a jury trial of her Title VII claim.)

Courts in this district have long predicted that the Pennsylvania Supreme Court would find that the state legislature intended to make a jury trial available under PHRA. See Wertz, 741 A.2d at 1277(citing cases). Although it is now evident that this prediction was incorrect insofar as Pennsylvania law is concerned, the right to a jury trial in federal court is a matter of federal law.See Simler v Conner, 372 U.S. 221,222(1963). In an action in federal court for money damages pursuant to the PHRA, a plaintiff has an independent right, guaranteed by the Seventh Amendment of the United States Constitution, to trial by jury. See Lubin v American Packaging Corp.,760F. Supp. 450(E.D. Pa. 1991); Galeone v. American Packaging Corp., 764 F. Supp. 349(E.D. Pa. 1991). The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania does not have the power to alter outcome; nor did it purport to do so. Dear Judge O'Malley:

I received a copy of Mr. Caterina's Memorandum Suggesting that the Cause is Moot, Special(Immediate) Relief Requested which was filed yesterday. Subsequently, I received a phone call from Mr. Caterina requesting that DGS agree to the Order attached to Mr. Caterina's Memorandum. I understand from Mr. Caterina that you are awaiting confirmation from the Commonwealth that the Temporary and Permanent Orders restraining Mr. Caterina are moot.

The Commonwealth obtained these restraining orders to prevent Mr. Caterina from interfering with a flood control project. The project is now complete. We have no objection to Mr. Caterina visiting his parents' house so long as he does not trespass upon or interfer in any manner with the flood control channels which have been placed on the (~~his~~) property. Since the case, such as it is, is still pending before the U.S. Supreme Court, Mr. Caterina's proposed order may not be appropriate. We respectfully submit an alternative order, which is attached with this letter. If you require any additional information, we can be reached at (717) 783-3280.

NOTICE OF APPEAL #3

The Court is hereby put on notice that an appeal is taken regarding ORDER 27 August 1999, Re: 'Nunc Pro Tunc Motion for Reconsideration'; (doc.12) Denied!

Review by the Supreme Court of the United States was crucial to the perfection of our asserted Rights to Common Law Remedy; viz. 'Right to Trial By Jury', as the Statutory Remedy; the right to appeal; was exhausted; thus! validating our Right to Trial by Jury under the VII Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

The granting of Certiorari was not crucial, BUT! the exhausting of the Statutory Remedy under the LAW; in this case the right to appeal because of the absence of an remedy; thereof; was crucial!(emphasis add

F.R.C.P. No. 4 obstructed our rights secured under the Constitution of the United States by abrogating them prem-maturely!

Judge William Caldwell and his Law Clerks are wrong and must be reversed in the interest of justice as they pre maturely prejudged the merits of the Case and obstructed our Constitutional 'right to trial by Jury' and our 'statutory right to remedy under the Law'.

The pendency of the Certiorari Petition and Rehearing had very great bearing as its' exhaustion was crucial! thus meriting the delay of service until perfected!

The Court was given prompt Notice of the filings as copies were docketed of the Writ of Certiorari and Petition Rehearing in this case. (See the docket entries in the record)

The advice that the Court gave the Plaintiffs was erroneous under the circumstances of the case scenario and abrogated both the Constitutional and Statutory Remedy Law Rights of the Plaintiffs as initated thru the use of F.R.C.P. Rule No. 4! Said Rule should have been suspended to permit the Remedy to be asserted!

THE BACKGROUND OF THIS ORDER IS AS FOLLOWS:

We are considering the plaintiffs' nunc pro tunc motion for reconsideration of our order of July 22, 1997, which dismissed the case without prejudice for failure to effect timely service of process, and our order of July 29, 1998, which denied a motion for clarification.

The basis of the reconsideration motion is that we should not have dismissed the case because at the time we did so the plaintiffs had a petition for writ of certiorari pending in the United States Supreme Court that influenced the plaintiffs in not complying with the time requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 for effecting service.

(Dkt Entry 18) filed Aug 27, 1999; Apx 223a, 224a; USCA, 3d No. 99-3793 (Appeal # 3)

We reject this contention. The pendency of such a petition has no bearing on timely service of process of a lawsuit that the plaintiffs elected to initiate while they pursed that petition.

However, we advise the plaintiffs that their previous lawsuit was dismissed without prejudice. Therefore, if they wish* to pursue their claim, they may file another case. Service of process should comply with federal Rule 4 and Local Rule 4.1 as to timeliness and perfection of service of the defendants.

AND NOW, this 27th day of August, 1999, it is ordered that the plaintiffs' nunc pro tunc motion for reconsideration (doc. 12) is denied.

NUNC PRO TUNC

RECONSIDERATION ORDER 22 JULY 1997 and ORDER 29 July 1998

1) Plaintiffs request the Court to Reconsider ORDER 22 July 1997, dismissed with out prejudice, because the Plaintiffs filed Writ of Certiorari on 15 April 1997 with the Sup Ct of the United States and no acknowledgement of said filings was received until 31 July 1997; wherein said District Court Order time barred the Plaintiffs wherein the Plaintiffs had no control over the Supreme Court of the United States & therefore Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4 should be suspended under the circumstances inorder to protect the 'Due Process Rights' of the Plaintiffs in this case their 'Right to Appeal', which was their right to Remedy under the Law. The Court's Ruling acted as an Obstruction to 'Due Process'. The Court should have suspended the Rule 4 until such time that the Supreme Court of the United States acknowledged the Plaintiffs Filings. The Court is requested to Suspend FRCP No. 4 on reconsideration! (1) Apx p 217a

(Dkt Entry Entry 12) filed Aug 16, 1999; Apx p.217a 218a; USCA,3rd No. 99-3793 (Appeal # 3)

2) Plaintiffs request the Court to Reconsider ORDER 29 JULY 1998, 'Motion for Clarification' denied, because the Plaintiffs were Denied Trial by Jury by the Defendants and inorder to secure; Under the VII Amendment of the Constitution of the United States; said right! they must First Exhaust their Remedy under the Law and in the absence thereof their Right to Appeal is construed to be their Statutory Remedy that was exhausted, thus! validating the assertion of their Common Law Remedy, viz, 'Right to Trial by Jury' & the Court should not have Denied their 'Motion for Clarification' in as much as the Case is unique and of First Impression and requires Clarification as to procedural processes available to the 'Pro Se' Plaintiffs! The Court is requested upon Reconsideration to grant the 'Motion for Clarification' and to Suspend the Rules that Barred their requist!

3) The Court has obstructed the Plaintiffs Right to Trial By Jury by Dismissing, the Action that could not proceed (emphasis added) until the Statutory Remedy was exhausted and the Court should Not have denied the Plaintiffs' 'Motion for Clarification'; because of the uniqueness of the assertion of Right to Trial By Jury of the Plaintiffs; said Motion should have been granted under the circumstances of their Cause of Action!

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION ORDER 16 July 99

The Plaintiffs wish the Court to consider that the Rules of Court are promulgated to promote the effective administration of Justice and not as an instrument to deny or obstruct justice at the convenience of the Clerks on behalf of the Court and its' Judges!

In view and in light of the document entitled 'Confirmation'; it is not too difficult to realize that Defendants through the Agents of the so-called Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania, in this case the Trial Court, are abusing process to deny and obstruct justice!

The Court herein, by (striking) the document, are in effect validating the wronful acts of the Defendants and aiding and abeting the Defendants acts.

We wish the Court to let the document stand in the record

as evidence of said abuse of process wherein one of the Plaintiffs has been unlawfully restrained and the PA General State Authority is in possession of stolen property wherein said property must be returned to its' rightful owners, the Plaintiffs herein, because of the criminality of their acts.

The Rules of Court are requested to be suspended so as not to Deny Justice to the Plaintiffs who have no control over the Trial Court and their non-responsive policy!

The Postition of the Plaintiffs is that all of the Acts of the Trial Court are moot and nugatory at face including the Restraining Order on Plaintiff Joseph R. Caterina and John Doe (and Jane Doe) as it is without probable cause and lacks jurisdiction and that justice delayed is justice denied!

For the foregoing reasons the Plaintiffs request the Court to Reconsider their ORDER dated 16 July 1999 and to let the document Confirmation stay in the record because Federal Rule of Civil Procedure No. 4 may not apply because of the wrongful abuse of process of the Defendants' Trial Court under the circumstances of this case! 1/n

THE BACKGROUND OF THIS ORDER IS AS FOLLOWS:

On July 22, 1997, we dismissed this matter without prejudice, based on Plaintiffs' failure to effect timely service of the complaint pursuant to FRCP Rule 4. Now before us is a document filed by Plaintiffs titled "Motion for Clarification," * which does not indicate the relief Plaintiffs are seeking. The Order of July 22, 1997, speaks for itself and does not require 'clarification.'

Accordingly, this 29th day of July, 1998, it is ordered that Plaintiffs' "Motion for Clarification," filed July 17, 1998 (Doc. No. 5), is denied.

both ORDERS on Appeal from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania (M.D. Pa. CV, No. 97-CV-00242) District Judge, Honorable William W. Caldwell

Note: Interconnected with US Sup Ct. No. 00-1390; Petition Rehearing Denied August 6, 2001? ORDER Application No. 00A1004 (No. 00-1390) and prior Application No. 00A706 (No. 00-1390).

 Conflicting Order USCA,10th Cr Nos. 94-6415, 94-6417; W.E. Ensminger v Farm Credit Bank of Wichita et al, W.D. Oklahoma, date 7 April 1995 by Anderson, Baldock & Brorby; C. Judges.

Dear Mr. Justice Souter:

We again wish an extension of time within which to file another * Writ of Certiorari in the above referenced case the Maximum Time permitted and thank you for the prior Applications A1004 and A706 (US Sup Ct No 00-1390) an interconnected appeal. (Both ORDERS to be addressed separately*)

The reasons are basically the same as the prior Applications as follows:

1) Presently I am taking care of my ninety year old Dad and my 62 year old paralized Brother, who has a broken leg that the Hospital refused to repair as because he is paralized from the neck down,(He doesn't need that leg anyway)and was taking care of my Mom, who just died in the middle of all this on 30 June; for the past 1329 straight days, without stop, since I took this responsibility over in which my free time is limited to about 2 hours in the day and 2 hours in the evening to take care of other affairs, such as this litigation.

2) The death of my Mom has really caught us by surprise and is very difficult to get over presently!

3) We are still 'In Pro Se', to date.

4) The Court of Appeals should have granted us relief, but! failed to do so (under FRAP Rule 2)?

5) The events of 11 September 2001, along with all our other recent hardships, have us all in turnmoil!

6) The ORDERS of the USCA,3rd Cr are in direct conflict with the perfected Rights and Doctrines as were secured in the USCA, 10th Cr ORDER and Judgment  herein above referenced!

Because of the above indicated personal hardships that have presently presented themselves; we would very much appreciate an extension of time appropriate under the circumstances in which to file another Writ of Certiorari, under US Sup Ct Rule 10(a) 'conflict Court of Appeals decisions'. Thank you.

Question the Court:How could our recent case submitted 6 July 2001 have been Denied 6 August 2001,(cite US Sup Ct No 00-1390); when the Court was on summer recess, by the Clerk, when no staff member or Sup Ct Associate Justices could have even reviewed our pleadings? An answer would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

DECISIONS USCA CONFLICTING

W.E. Ensminger v Farm Credit Bk of Wichita; 1st Ntl Bk of Okeene; USCA 10th Cir Apr 7, 1995 Nos 94-6415 & 6417 W.D. Oklahoma Un.Pu. Caterina v Unified Judical; USCA 3rd Cir 24 Aug 2001 No. 99-3793 Un.Pu.;(99-3689,3690)-interconnected appeals; US Sup Ct#00-1390 denied 6 Aug 2001 (2) see (A-103)Writ Cert #1

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Appellate Court was put on notice/3 by Petitioners in their Petition for Panel Rehearing/4 concerning a parallel case decision in USCA 10th Cir./5 in which that Appellate Court upheld the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, & collateral estoppel under the 7th Amendment, FRCP & US Sup Ct Rule 17.1. That judgment had persuasive value with respect to the key material issue in the case herein and the USCA 3rd Cir. rendered a decision contrary to the USCA 10th Cir cited decision/6 by denying reconsideration.

By ignoring the USCA 10th Cir decision, the Appellate Court (3rd Cir.) has in effect suspended FRCP Rule 38(a) Jury Trial Right and the 7th & 4th Amendments, U.S. Const./7

Under the good cause shown FRAP Rule 2/8 should have been asserted by the Court to suspend FRCP Rule 4 and Local Rule 4.1/9 so as not to have obstructed the asserted Constitutional Rights of the Petitioners as Rules must be made "in Pursuance" of the U.S. Const./10(see Art. VI, cl. 2 therein.)

The USCA 3rd Cir was confronted with why the Case herein was not 'Res Judicata' as per the cited USCA 10th Cir. case/2 which decision was in conflict. see (iv) end fn.2

Lost to Petitioners were their perfected Constitutional Rights because of a direct conflict of Appellate Court decisions. see (i)

ARGUMENT

The Appellate Court (3rd Cir) was asked in a Petition for Panel Rehearing; "If the above cited Parallel Case is found 'Res Judicata' in the USCA 10th Cir., then why is not the Parallel Case herein Not 'Res Judicata' in the USCA, 3rd Cir. ?/[2] (iv) end; see (A-14) (A-12,13) Writ Cert #1

Petitioners' reference was made to W.E. Ensminger v. Farm Credit Bank of Wichita; First Ntl Bank of Okeene; USCA 10th Cir Nos 94-6415 & 94-6417 Apr 7, 1995 Un. Pu./[1] herein (ii) as attached herein (151 F.R.D. 470); see (A-23,24 & 25) Writ Cert #1

The Third Circuit was silent and denied Reconsideration! see (A-1) herein or (A-1) Writ of Cert #1.

In this conflicting decision, the 3rd Cir. suspended the 7th Amendment, FRCP Rule 38(a) Jury Trial Right and the protections of the 4th Amendment as the Petitioners are being restrained w/o probable cause, proper service or jury trial and Ex Parte, from their own property by a court that lacks jurisdiction!

Petitioners' Constitutional Rights, as perfected, were lost; as the doctrine of exhaustion was obstructed, due to the non-uniformity in Appellate Court decisions, as Constitutional Rights vary depending on regions within the United States! see (A-58) Wirt Cert #1 Nihil Dicit Judgment.

Without uniformity in the decisions of the U.S. Courts of Appeals, Constitutional Rights are arbitrary and capricious and only have merit within certain Circuits of our judicial system and not others! This cannot be.

Petitioners are without fundamental doctrines of Federal Law and General Law such as collateral estoppel whereby they are permanently restrained from their own property without due process, without trial by jury under FRCP Rule 38(a) and without the protections of the doctrine of Res Judicata and Law of the Case.

The Right to Trial by Jury is absent! If Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are used to obstruct asserted Constitutional Rights, not to protect them then no one's property is safe and Court decisions are of little or no value on the Appellate level because conflicting decisions cannot be relied upon!

Litigants and Lawyers are damned if they do & damned if they don't and are caught in the middle, because of conflicts in Appellate Court decisions that are not uniform!

CONCLUSION

The supervisory power of this Court be exercised under US Sup Ct Rule 10(a) so as to continue uniformity of decisions on these matters among the federal Courts of Appeals./[1,2]

DOCKETED

ORDER AND JUDGMENT*

Before ANDERSON, BALDOCK, and BRORBY, Circuit Judges.

After examining the briefs and appellate record, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a); 10th Cir. R. 34.1.9. The cause is therefore ordered submitted without oral argument.

Warren E. Ensminger appeals the dismissal of his actions, characterizing the actions as follows:

* This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. The court generally disfavors the citation of orders and judgments; nevertheless, an order and judgment may be cited under the terms and conditions of the court's General Order filed November 29, 1993. 151 F.R.D. 470.

> This action was instigated to determine who has the highest title to property located in [Major and Grady] county, Oklahoma Territory state, of which the United States of America by contract, gave up all right, title or interest in said property, without any conditions set forth; and it is very clear by the defendant's pleadings that it is not that entity that is claiming the property, Mr. Butler for Federal Land Bank clearly stated that the claim is the United States, and that Federal Land Bank and First National Bank in Okeene are not of the United States of America. Mr. Elliott's pleading for First National Bank in Okeene, plead the resident scam, and didn't object to the Federal Land Bank claim. Then there is a question of the 7th Amendment, and of which would boil over in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as contained in the 1991 Ed., Supreme Court Rule No. 17.1, the Court's Original Jurisdiction, vs. The Courts Appellate. Then the facts of the courts original jurisdiction, exclusive to the people, did speak, and was placed into evidence.

Appellant's Opening Briefs at 1.

Upon review of the records and arguments of the parties, the judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED. The mandates shall issue forthwith.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Appellate Court in reviewing the District Ct's denial erred. Petitioners timely filed Appeals from the Penna. Sup Ct. /1, in both the Dist Ct & the US Sup Ct (A-65),(A-33).

The Appellate Ct wrongfully cited that, ". . their petition for writ of certiorari, stemming from a separate District Court proceeding and pending in the US Sup Ct ". /2 This is not so! Said Writ of Cert stemmed from the Supreme Court of Penna./2 requiring the exhausting of Statutory Remedies, which required Petitioners to exhaust all remedies before proceeding in the US District Court MD Pa (A-96) & (A-100), requiring the suspension of FRCP Rule 4 and Local Rule 4.1./3,4,5 & 6

The Appellate Ct in their opinion (A-17, A-22) failed to consider the Petitioners' inability to comply with the Dist Ct Order * 24 June 1997 (A-101, A-102) because of their Pending Case and refused to consider FRAP Rule 2,/3 contrary to US Sup Ct precedents: S. Stern & Co v U.S.,/4; Miranda v Arizona, n73,/6; & Cummings v State of Missouri,/7.

The Appellate Court's error suspended the Petitioners' Rights instead of the Rule & thereby denied their Right to Trial by Jury, not to be restrained from their own property without probable cause,/5.

the doctrines of Law of the Case, Res Judicata and Collateral estoppel were now implicated into the scope of lack of jurisdiction! So-equally should these doctrines apply to the Appellants herein and the Court herein must determine their jurisdiction in view and in light of the Seventh Amendment Ass-

If the Court has no jurisdiction because of Res Judicata, then it is the duty of the Court to declare such and assist the the Appleants in enforcing their legal position by notification to the other Courts who so-equally may also lack jurisdiction, such as Equity; that would then resolve all matters herein including the restraining ORDER on the Appellants.
